

Beautiful Palace & Museum of Beer

PSZCZYNA - not without reason is Pszczyna called the “pearl of Upper Silesia”. This very distinctive town has for many years been attracting tourists, captivating them with its picturesque sights and a unique atmosphere, soaked in history of Poland.

One of the grandest showplaces shown on the town's tourist map is the CastleMuseum, once the seat of local princes Hochberg and famous Princess Daisy.

Pszczyna Castle is one of the few museums in this part of Europe to have preserved a wide collection of authentic 19th and 20th century magnate's residential furnishings.

Museum of Beer

An OLD brewery (once belonged to Hochberg family), when some of the best Polish beer is still being brewed.
